

I support this utilization. It maximizes and optimizes utilization of existing infrastructure without undue interference to Amateur Radio and other hf services.